1822 TO 1922

AN ACROSTIC—PIKE COUNTY

Come, oh my muse! my pen inspire,
And touch it with poetic fire.
Help me to tell the wondrous story
Of Pike's past and future glory.

P's for pride of a noble sort,
Pride of character which can't be bought.
Which strives to be true and dares to be brave
Would help the erring, the lost would save.

I's for industry, in things worth while;
Seeking the good and shunning the vile.
Ready alike to serve God or man;
Building a character on God's plan.

K's for knowledge, coming from above;
The knowledge of God, whose name is love.
Like Mary to sit at Jesus' feet:
Learn lessons of faith and trust complete.

E's for earnest in purpose and aim;
Putting forth efforts, worthy the name.
Not idling; loitering, wasting time,
But struggling: climbing to heights sublime.

C's for Christ Jesus, our Lord, our King.
Hail Him! Crown Him! His praises sing.
To Him swear allegiance, to Him render praise,
Now and ever, through everlasting days.

O's for obey the laws ordained of God.
Thou shalt; thou shalt not; says God's own word.
Render to Caesar, what belongs to him.
Treat God fairly, or else 'tis sin.
U's for union; together we stand,
   Loving; tender, a brave loyal band.
Drive out the Devil; Honor our God.
He'll sustain us, tho we pass 'neath the sod.

N's for numbers who've wandered away:
   From the Shepherd's fold they've gone astray.
Let's seek these lost sheep of the fold.
Angels rejoice o'er the penitent soul.

T's touch not; taste not, the unclean thing.
   T'will bite like the serpent; like the adder will sting.
Be sober and clean and pure in our lives.
Nor bring grief and shame to children and wives.

Y stands for youth, the boys of our land.
   Hope of our country: a loyal band.
Ye boys be brave in the world's great strife.
Lofty your aims and pure your life.
Boundaries of Pike County were laid out in 1882. It was bounded on the north by Fayette and Henry; on the East by Monroe and a part of Butts; on the South by Upson; on the west by Flint River and Line creek.

In 1824, a part of Pike was added to Upson. In 1851, the County of Spalding was formed and the northern part of Pike, in which was situated the city of Griffin, was put in the new county. The area of Pike was again greatly lessened in 1920, when the Eastern part of the county, in which was situated the towns of Barnesville, Milner and Liberty Hill, was added to the new county of Lamar.

Pike County was named for General Zebulon Montgomery Pike, a hero of the war of 1812, who lost his life in a battle with the British troops. The county site was originally old Newman near Finchers Church, but was moved to Zebulon in 1825. The town gets its name from the given name of General Pike, and was suggested by Mrs. D. S. Patterson, who was an early settler of Pike, but who died near Jackson, Ga., in 1883.

The first court house was of hewn logs, and Mr. D. S. Patterson told me that he helped to hew the logs. The log house which Mr. Patterson built for a dwelling is still standing on the farm owned by the estate of Mrs. R. W. Rogers, and is over 100 years old.

The second court house was of brick and cost $8,000.

The present building was erected in 1895. The following were commissioners: T. J. Cadenhead, Chairman; E. G. Aikin, J. T. Tyus, William M. Hartley, Sr., Clerk.

On November 25, 1825, an act was passed by the Senate and House of Representatives of the General Assembly of Georgia, and signed by Governor G. M. Troup, authorizing the purchase of lot number 227 as the county site, naming it Zebulon. The following were appointed commissioners: Lewis Daniel, Francis Daniel, Hugh F. Rose, Laurince, and Absalom Echols, with authority to exercise the power of Justice's of the Peace. According to the Court Records this was revived in 1894-5.

I copy some things now from an article written by Mrs. M. J. Redding and published in the Pike county Journal in March 1914. "Zebulon was laid off early in the 20's. Among the earliest settlers was Mr. Hugh G. Johnson, who built the first house in Zebulon on the lot now owned by Mrs. Maples. He afterwards built where the home of Mr. Jas. Slade now stands. Among the old landmarks still left are the Ballard House, the Blasingame House and the Wells House.

RELIGION.

No people can be truly prosperous, in the truest sense of that term, unless the character of the citizens is built upon faith in the true God. But for the influence of the Christian religion, we would be no better than the people in heathen lands.

The early citizens of Pike county recognizing God's claims upon them began at once to plan for the preaching of the gospel and the building and organizations of churches, and to the work of the pioneer preachers is due much of the credit for the prosperity and intelligence of our people. We feel that we must devote some space to the work of the church in our county.
THE EARLY HISTORY OF METHODISM IN PIKE COUNTY

Up to 1830, Georgia and Florida were in the South Carolina Conference. In those days the preachers were nearly all unmarried men. At first, a preacher's salary was $60 per annum. After a few years it was increased to $80 and then, later to $100. They needed but little money, as they rode horse-back, and carried their books and clothes with them. The average circuit had two preachers with about twenty-five or twenty-six appointments at which they preached twice each month, having an appointment every day in the week except Monday. Some of these Circuit Riders, though their education was limited, were wonderful preachers of the gospel.

Andrew Hamil came to Pike County in 1823, and he was the first Methodist preacher who came to this part of Georgia. Late in life he married Miss Maria Torrance of Baldwin county. After his death, she married Judge William A. Cobb of Upson County. Mrs. Cobb was one of my best friends. She lived to be very old. Just before she died, she gave me some of Andrew Hamil's books.

CAMP GROUNDS

A Camp Ground was established at Fincher's Church at a very early date, but for lack of water, in 1853, it was moved to Bluff Springs. Miss Sarah Lifsey heard the first sermon there in September, 1853, and remembers the preacher, Rev. Joshua Payne, who afterwards died of Yellow Fever in Savannah. His text was 2nd. Timothy, 4-7-8. The Camp Meetings were suspended during the Civil War and were not held again until 1878. They have been kept up ever since, and have been occasions of great spiritual power. Great sermons have been preached there by Holy Men of God and thousands have been born into Christ's Kingdom. This Campground is connected with the Zebu-
Ion Circuit (1922) and the following are Trustees: Jas. W. Holsey, W. J. Franklin, W. D. Howell, Thos. A. Lifsey, and Robt. R. Carter.

BAPTIST CHURCHES

The Baptist church filled a prominent place in the history of this section of Georgia. In 1836, there was a division on the subject of Missions and Sunday Schools. One branch is known as the Missionary Baptist Church branches have the same creed, and both have done much for the up-building of Christ’s Kingdom. The Missionary Baptist Church has done a wonderful work in sending the gospel to the heathen, and in promoting the cause of Christian Education in the Homeland. I have tried fairly and impartially to give a brief account of every church in the county according to the information I have been able to obtain. The churches in this county belong to the Flint River Association.

Rev. John Milner established a church called Sardis, on the land belonging to the estate of Mrs. M. E. Eubank six miles from Barnesville. There are a number of graves to be seen yet near the site of the old church. This church was moved to Barnesville. This was the beginning of the Barnesville Baptist Church.

PRIMITIVE BAPTIST CHURCHES

HARMONY

Harmony Church was constituted about 100 year ago. It was first built on the Jackson road, but was moved later to its present location on the Milner road. The first Deacons were, John Cadenhead and Jas. Sullivan (Grandfather of P. M. Sullivan). The following pastors have served this church, but we do not know the order or date of their pastorates: J. A. Monsess, Lee Wyat Childs, Britain John Morgan and William Mosely.

Deacons are, Judge Bloodworth and C. W. Sullivan.

CONCORD CHURCH

January 9, 1833, Concord church was deeded by William Gilbert to the Deacons. From this church the town takes its name. Among the pastors who have served this church are: Elders Duke, Nichols, Thrash, Head, Fuller, O'Neal Bussey, Williamson and Morris.

FLAT ROCK

Flat Rock Church was constituted in 1858. The following have served as pastors at various periods in the past W. T. Goddard, John P. Lyons, J. L. Gunter, J. C. Nichols, J. A. Wright, Daniel Henderson and A. C. Elliott. In 1920, there was a division in the church, and now there are two pastors, and two church organizations in the same church building, holding services on different Sabbaths. Of one branch, Dr. J. M. F. Bazemore is pastor, and William M. Hartley Sr., and Jonas Hartley are the deacons. They have about twenty members. Of the other branch Geo. R. Goddard is pastor and Walter Ballard, Ira Harden and W. O. Reeves are the Deacons. They have forty members and belong to the Towilaga Association.

HISTORY OF FINCHERS CHURCH

Fincher's Church was organized in 1822 or 1823. The records show that Andrew Hamil was the first pastor. Among the charter members were Jos. Fincher and his wife, Mrs. Martha Fincher for whom the church was named. Grandma Fincher lived to be 96 years old. In 1831 the Lifsey family moved to Pike County and having been Methodists in Morgan County they united with Fincher's and from that day they have helped to make Methodist history and advance the Kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ. When the writer was pastor of Fincher's in 1876-77, there were forty-eight Lifseys on the church roll. Miss Sarah Lifsey 86 years old is still living just waiting the call of the Master. Fincher's was connected with the Zebulon Charge until the Fall of 1866, when the Circuit was divided. About that time the Pike Mission, afterward changed to Milner Circuit was established embracing Milner, Ebenezer, Fincher's and Century Nelson Churches. The writer served this Circuit in 1876-77.

Fincher's church was put with the Zebulon Circuit in 1915. A Sunday School was formed at a very early date. They now have a very flourishing school with an enrollment of one hundred and thirteen. W. T. Cochran is Superintendent.

J. S. Lifsey, better known as Uncle Tony went to heaven in 1921, being 82 years old. He was Superintendent for many years.

Fincher's Church has an enrollment of two hundred-one members, ranging of 9 to 87 years of age.

The present Trustee's are Robt. R. Carter, W. T. Cochran, Jas. H. Lifsey, Thos. A. Lifsey and Joseph S. Slade. The following compose the Board of Stewards: T. A. Lifsey, W. Enoch Storey, I. D. Cochran, Jos. S. Slade and Henry S. Bishop. Benjamin N. Lifsey is Church Secretary. There have been several church buildings at Fincher's in the past. The present elegant building was erected in 1905.

FINCHERS WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY

A woman's Foreign Missionary Society was organized at Fincher's Church nearly twenty years ago. Four years ago the society was re-organized and since then the work has been carried on with renewed zeal and consecration. The study class has been a wonderful help and inspiration to the members.

The society has fifteen members, with following officers: Pres., Miss Mary Kelly; Vice-Pres., Mrs. R. R. Carter; Secy., Mrs. Henry Bishop; Treas., Miss Claude Slade.

In 1918, Mrs. Arthur Maness organized a Young People's Auxiliary with fifteen members. There are thirty members now in the Society, with the following officers: Leader, Mrs. R. R. Carter; Pres., Miss Mary Kelly; Vice Pres., Miss Florence Carter; Secy., Mrs. I. D. Cochran; Treas., George Lifsey; Supt., Children's work Mrs. S. S. Barrett. She has a flourishing Society.

The Ladies Aid Society of Pinchers Church was organized in 1922, with Mrs. S. S. Barrett as president. Twenty-three members are enrolled. The object of the society is to help the church and the parsonage.

Although Pinchers Church was established at a much earlier date, the deed was not recorded until 1846. The following were the Trustees: Simon Slade, John Means, Jas. Neal, Colens Moreland, Jos. T. Fincher, Wm. Barrett, Sr., Jas Barrett, Nathan Boyd and John Lifsey.

Among the early members were Mrs. Edith Lifsey, who died at the age of 96, the Barrett family, the Slade family, the Howell family and the Storey family.

EBENEZER M. E. CHURCH, SOUTH.

We can not find when Ebenezer Church was organized, but the first recorded deed was dated Aug. 5, 1840, and was made by W. O. Kendrick to the following Trustees: Sylvanus Kendrick, Thos. B. Jones, Wm. Park, Richmond R. Kendrick, Samuel Ford, W. G. Morgan and J. L. Winfield.

Some of the early members of this church were Rev.
Patrick N. Maddox, local preacher and his family, A. E. Eubank and wife, Mrs. Henrietta Shehee, Laurence Smith, John Means, Jas. W. Means, Mrs. Fannie Slade, Jas. Bankston and family, Garlington Leak and family and Jas. W. Holsey and wife. Ebenezer has always been small in numbers, but loyal and faithful to the doctrines and discipline of the Methodist Church. Of the early members, Mrs. J. W. Means and J. W. Holsey still survive, patiently waiting the Master’s call. Mrs. M. Eubank (91 years old) and her daughter, Mrs. Richard W. Rogers have recently died. Bro. J. W. Holsey, while leading the congregation in prayer, in Zebulon, on Easter Sunday 1922, was stricken with paralysis, and has been bedridden since. His life has been a benediction to Ebenezer and Zebulon.

Ebenezer Church was on the Zebulon charge until the Milner Circuit was formed in the latter sixties, composed of Milner, Ebenezer, Fincher’s, and Century Nelson churches. Rev. J. S. Bryan was one of the first pastors of this Circuit. Rev. Isaac G. Parks served the Circuit in 1873; Eli Smith in 1874; Rev. Jas. Smith in 1875, and the writer (R. W. Rogers) in 1876-77. I have not a record of the later preachers. In 1917 it was placed on “The Rock” Circuit. L. E. Wright was pastor in 1917-18; Robert P. Tatum in 1919-20, J. D. Milton in 1921, and Grover C. Knowles is the beloved and efficient preacher and pastor for 1922.

The following are the Stewards: Warren W. Bush, Jas. W. Holsey, Jas. O. Franklin, and Jas. W. Elliott. Miss Alma Walker is Sunday School Superintendent. Miss Alma Bush is the President of the Woman’s Missionary Society.

Ebenezer Church made a fine record in the Centenary Campaign.

HISTORY OF CENTURY NELSON CHURCH.

Century Nelson Church was organized about 1822. It was named for one of the charter members, Mr. Thos. Nelson, who was 100 years old at the time the church was established. It is said that he split 100 rails the day he celebrated his 100th birthday. There have been several church buildings here. One was destroyed by a cyclone in 1894, and the present building was erected in 1895.

This church was connected with the Zebulon work until 1866. It was then put on the Milner Circuit. In 1917 it was placed on The Rock Circuit. The present very much beloved pastor is Rev. Grover C. Knowles.

James Holmes, John Jordan and Alfred Tarver were the first deacons and were, perhaps, in the constitution of the church, however we can't be certain about that as the rec-

RURAL SCHOOLS.

Were I called upon to name the uncrowned heroes of the present day I should unhesitatingly mention the teachers of our rural schools. No class of citizens are doing more for the future of our country than they. Their work is second only to the ministry. With inadequate salaries, most of which they are forced to spend at summer training schools, with a devotion worthy of the cause, they are giving their lives to the work of training our boys and girls for future citizens along intellectual and spiritual lines.

HISTORY OF NEW HOPE CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

New Hope was organized as a congregational Methodist Church in 1852. The church house was built in 1853. Rev. W. H. Graham was its first pastor. In 1888 the church formed a union with two other churches (the Congregational and Free Protestant Churches) and left off the Methodist part of its name and has since been known as New Hope Congregational Church. The church now is composed of 95 members. It has a Sunday School of 30 members and a Ladies' Aid Society. Dr. D. Witherspoon Dodge of the Atlanta Theological Seminary is its present pastor, and Early Owen is church clerk. Rev. Jones Bush was pastor of this church for a number of years.

LIBERTY CHAPEL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

This church was organized February, 1893, by Rev. Wm. H. Graham, Jr., in the home of Mr. W. W. King, about one mile from Lifsey Spring. Bro. Graham was the first pastor. Mr. W. W. King and children and Mr. Jeff Foster and family were among the charter members. Mr. Jas. R. Wood, a member of New Hope Congregational Church, rendered valuable assistance in organizing the church and in erecting the church building. The church was built in 1895, and dedicated on the third Sunday in September of that year.

Rev. Gideon Horne, the present earnest and zealous pastor, has served this church as pastor several times in the past.
FRIENDSHIP PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Friendship Presbyterian Church was organized in 1835 by Rev. J. Y. Alexander and Rev. A. M. Money. At this time it was in the Flint River Presbytery which existed before the Atlanta Presbytery. The original site of the church was in the Western part of Pike County, three miles and a half northwest of Concord. To make the church more central to its membership it was moved about 1870 to its present location.

In the early days of the church annual campmeetings were held. The church has been fortunate in having many devout and consecrated men to serve it. Rev. J. W. Corbin was pastor for many years. He drove over a hundred miles through the country in a buggy to meet his appointments. W. J. Keith supplied the church for a number of years. In 1849 Rev. Andrew G. Peden became pastor and served for twenty years. He was succeeded by Rev. L. H. Wilson, who was pastor for three years. Rev. Peden then resumed the pastorate and held it until his death in 1896. Since that time the church has been supplied by Rev. W. E. Dozier, Rev. Abraham, Rev. Stacy, Rev. Hannah, Rev. Young, Rev. E. W. Russell, Rev. W. P. Hemphill, Rev. Stafford, Rev. L. D. King and others. Seminary students occasionally have supplied the church.

Rev. Tellford, of Greenville, Ga., is supplying the church at present with the following officers:

Although the church has lost many of its members, by deaths and moving away, it is at the present time growing in influence and numbers and the prospects for the future are bright—having recently organized for the community a Woman’s Auxiliary and a Junior and Senior Christian Endeavor
NAZARENE BAPTIST CHURCH

In 1893, a church was organized in the southwestern part of Pike County, called the United Baptist Church. In 1908 it was reorganized as the Nazarene Church. The present pastor is Rev. W. R. Hanson.

There are 37 members on the church roll and 78 on the Sunday School roll.

The officers are. Sunday School Superintendent, J. M. Butler; Asst. Supt., J. A. King; Bible Class Teacher, S. J. Gibson; Juvenile Teacher, Miss Nettie Gibson; Picture Card Class, Mrs. J. M. Butler; Secretary, Miss Lottie May King.

STORY OF CONCORD

Nearly a century ago settlers began to move into West Pike, which at that time was but a stretch of wild forest land over run with Indians and wild animals. These pioneers began building log cabins for homes and clearing the forests for farm lands. As there were no railroads in the state, farm produce was hauled to Macon where small boats came up the Ocmulgee.

As the community grew with the coming of other settlers, there was built about eighty years ago the first church, the Primitive Baptist, called "Concord", which gave the town its name. This building was moved in 1886 to make room for the Georgia Midland and Gulf Railway, and a new church was erected. About the same time the first school-house was built, at which the grandparents of some of the present generation were educated.

About eighty years ago the Central Railroad reached Griffin enabling our people to do their marketing nearer home. With the advent of the Georgia Midland Railway in 1887 the town began to grow. New stores were started and old ones were rebuilt. Old Salem, the Methodist Church, moved to town in 1888 and Hebron, the Baptist Church, came in from the country about the same time. The schoolhouse at that time was a small building just across the street from the present one. The principal was Prof. R. D. Shruptrine of Thomaston, Ga.

The first charter was granted in 1887 and signed by Gov. John B. Gordon. In January, 1888, the first town council was formed, composed of the following members: E. M. Hooten, T. L. McLendon, W. E. Lloyd, N. B. Waller and J. C. Irvin. N. B. Waller and J. C. Irvin still live; the others have gone to their reward. Concord is an orderly and a prosperous town. For several years about 5,000 bales of cotton were marketed here, but the advent of the boll weevil has greatly reduced the number. The people take great interest in beautifying their homes, and several very handsome residences have recently been erected.

The following firms do business here:

Pike County Nursery, A. A. McElveen.

Fancy Groceries, Miss Essie McLendon.

Fancy Groceries, D. W. Story.

Raven & Smith, General Merchants.

J. C. Irvin, General Merchant.

Lee & Strickland, General Merchants.

J. A. Madden, Fancy Groceries.

Chas. Morgan, Fancy Groceries and Ice, Livery Auto.

R. A. Mallory, Physician and Druggist.

D. L. Head, Physician.

Braswell & Sharpe, Blacksmiths and Repair Shop.
Waller & Lee, Blacksmiths and Repair Shop.
Postmaster, R. E. Lee.
Garage, D. B. Lee and D. G. Tucker.

Smith Bros. Nurseries.

Concord is probably known by more people than any other town of its size in the South. One business firm her doubtless serves more customers than any other establishment in the State.

We refer to Smith Bros., the nurserymen. This business was established 35 years ago, by J. H. & C. T. Smith and has now grown to be the largest retail nursery in the South. They ship trees to almost every railroad station in the Southern States and they number their customers by the hundred thousand. Trees and plants from Smith Bros. are grown around nearly every home in the cotton belt.

Trees are grown here by the million. They grow more peach trees than anything else, but also have large blocks of apple, pear, plum, pecan, rose, ornamentals and other stock. From 50 to 100 people are employed to work in their office, packing houses and fields.

Mr. C. T. Smith is business manager of the firm, and is assisted by Mr. F. M. Smith, and a good force of office workers. The field department is run by Mr. J. H. Smith, assisted by Mr. C. M. Smith.

The Concord Woman's Club.

The Concord Woman's Club was organized Sept. 9, 1921, with 21 members—present membership, including honorary members, 30. The officers elected for the year were:

Mrs. Florence Brown, President.

Mrs. W. A. Strickland, Vice-President.
Mrs. R. H. Strickland, Second Vice-President.
Mrs. R. C. Blanks, Secretary.
Miss Sallie Mae Strickland, Treasurer.

The purpose of the Club is community work, for we believe like our wise president of the General Federation of Woman’s Clubs, Mrs. Winter, that “Community work must be the hub of the wheel in Club work.”

During the first year of our club’s existence, all our efforts have been used to improve our school. Among the things accomplished are: Assistance rendered in equipping the domestic science department, beautifying the school grounds, helping to make a payment on electric light plant and improving the interior of our dormitory.

The money used in financing our activities was raised by giving entertainments of various kinds at intervals throughout the year, and by selling refreshments at ball games during the summer.

In giving these entertainments and in selling refreshments our object was two-fold, first, of course, to make money for the use of the club, and second, to provide wholesome, interesting and inexpensive recreation for both old and young in our community, and the importance of giving every one his money’s worth in the matter of both entertainment and refreshment was stressed.

The registering of our women and their voting in the fall elections is a far reaching event in the first year of the Concord Woman’s Club.

But by far the most satisfactory achievement of our first club year has been the wonderful spirit of love, sympathy and cooperation among the women of Concord.

HISTORY OF CONCORD MUSIC LOVERS CLUB.

The Music Lovers Club of Concord, Ga., was organized at the Dormitory on October 16th, 1921. At the first meeting, which was held at the home of Mrs. C. T. Smith, twenty-three were present and enrolled as members. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Miss Vera Lazenby, President.
Miss Ruth Sullivan, Vice-President.
Miss Mary Clary, Secretary.
Mrs. C. T. Smith, Treasurer.

Misses Vera Lazenby, Ruth Sullivan, Elsie Brown, Mary Irvin and Mrs. Bessie Lee, Program Committee.

Miss Elsie Brown was elected Secretary to fill the unexpired term of Miss Mary Clary.

It was decided that each member pay 25c dues for the first year and that we meet once a month, also that we join the County and State Federation. Membership was denied in the General Federation on account of youth of the Club.

The object of the Club is the enjoyment of its members and to promote and develop the love for good music.

The Club has followed the outline for Club Study “Americanization Through Music” issued by the General Federation of Women’s Clubs.

A play was given during the summer, by the Club members, and a nice sum realized—money to be used for running expenses for the Club and purchasing necessary material.

Present membership, including all who enrolled during the year (some having moved away) and honorary members, numbers thirty-five.

HOLLONVILLE METHODIST CHURCH.

We do not know just when Flat Rock Church was established. The Quarterly Conference records dating back to 1846 show that it was a strong church then for those times.
In 1892, the name was changed to Hollonville and the following are named as Trustees: W. S. Scott, W. T. Huckaby and J. W. Hood. In the Trustees' report, they state that the church was comparatively new and worth $1000. It remains on the Zebulon Circuit records through 1896, when it was placed on some other work. In 1902, the Hollonville Church re-appears on the Zebulon Circuit, and continues on that work through 1916, when it was placed on another circuit. It is now on the Griffin Circuit and Rev. J. H. Farr is the pastor (1922). There are about 20 names on the church roll. The following are Stewards: E. J. Scott, M. S. Johnson and E. B. Connell.

Among the early settlers, who as members of Flat Rock Church, helped to make Methodist history in Pike County, Cadesman Pope, the head of the Pope family, deserves honorary mention. His son, Rev. Cadesman Pope, after long years of active service in the ministry, is now a superannuated member of the Arkansas Conference. Another son, Judge Jas. S. Pope, served his generation by the will of God, and at the time of his death was an active member of the Methodist Church in Zebulon. A daughter married Mr. Owen Jones, and they and their children were members of Flat Rock Church for years. Another daughter married Rev. J. Sidney Bryan, a member of the North Georgia Conference, who served both as pastor and presiding elder in Pike County. Mrs. W. J. Franklin is a daughter of Owen Jones. Mrs. J. M. Head is a daughter of Mr. Cadesman Pope.

In 1921, having outgrown the old building and it being unsuitable for Sunday School purposes, under the leadership of our able pastor, J. W. R. Jenkins, and our Sunday School Superintendent, H. G. Langford, it was decided on account of financial conditions to build a temporary house of worship. Schools of Pike County.

Through the kindness of Miss Lizzie R. Mitchell, who gave a number of years of her consecrated life to faithful, efficient teaching, which has been a benediction to Pike County, we are enabled to present some very interesting information about the teachers in Zebulon and the adjacent country. Her grandfather was the first teacher. In those days there were two schools. The male academy stood about where Capt. Howard now lives, and the female academy near where the present school buildings stand.

I append a list of teachers, who taught in and around Zebulon.

Before the Civil War: E. W. Wells, John Stewart, Thig-pen, Miss Davison, Rogers, Stone, Dodson, A. E. Eubanks.

This brings us to about 1902 when the Zebulon school was deeded to the M. E. Church, South, and named the Griffin District Institute. The following were the presidents in the order mentioned: Rev. C. V. Weathers, J. E. Smith, A. H. Stevens, Rev. Geo. E. Rosser, and Rev. J. R. Speer. In 1912, the school was deeded back to local trustees and became the Zebulon High School. Since the change the following have been principals: Prof. T. J. Gardner and Miss Lizzie R. Mitchell. Eleven grades are taught. The school opened Sept. 4, 1922, with an enrollment of 256. The present faculty is: Rev. A. J. Hargrove, Principal; Miss Mary Lucy Hargrove, 1st grade; Miss Mirian Hunt, 2nd and 3rd grades; Miss Vera Courson, 4th and 5th grades; Miss Emily Drake, 6th and 7th grades; Miss Sarah Harrison, latin and history; Miss Irene Redding, English and French; Miss Sybil Akin, mathematics and science; Miss M. L. Hargrove, domestic science; Mrs. R. C. Johnson, music.

The enrollment for the spring term will be much larger.

Zebulon Methodist Church.

We cannot find out when the first Methodist Church was established in Zebulon, but as the first Methodist preacher was sent to Pike County in 1823 it must have been soon after the county site was moved there. None of the early churches were deeded until several years after their establishment. The court records show that on June 6, 1842, a deed was made to the following trustees: Jas. Beckham, Jas. Neal, Isaac E. Nunnally, Robt. M. Stegar, Wm. M. Barrett, Sr., Solomon G. Beckham and Andrew J. Beckham. In the early days, the circuits were large, but as the churches grew new circuits were established. For a number of years there were four churches on the Zebulon Circuit, with preaching at each church once a month. During the pastorate of Rev. J. Walter King, there was a gracious revival, and the church took on new life and power, and at the request of the Board of Stewards, Zebulon was made a half station, in 1915, with preaching twice a month. The other churches on the charge are Finchers and Concord. The present pastor (1922) is Rev. Adrian Warwick. The following are the Stewards: E. M. Pope, J. Morris Means, W. D. Howell, Wm. S. Slade, Hartford Green, and Dr. Marvin M. Head. Church Secretary, G. B. Ridley. Number of members is 160.

The Zebulon Sunday School, under the management of the efficient and up-to-date superintendent, has grown rapidly in numbers, attendance and zeal. There are 148 names now on the roll, and it is thoroughly organized in every department. The following are the officers: E. Martin Pope, Superintendent; Frank L. Adams, Secretary; Capt. J. F. Howard is president of Men's Bible Class; G. B. Ridley and John C. Wood are the teachers. Since the death of Mrs. Richard W. Rogers, Mrs. Susan Pope has been the teacher of the Woman's Bible Class.

Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of Zebulon M. E. Church, South.

The first society was organized February 4, 1889, with the following officers: President, Miss Minnie Merritt; Vice-President, Mrs. Will Wells; Recording Secretary, Mrs. S. R. England; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Mattie Green; Treasurer, Mrs. J. L. Driver. The society has been in existence since its organization, but for the last few years it has taken on new life and is now doing fine work. They have an interesting Mission Study Class in connection with the society. Below is a list of the present officers: President, Mrs. W. J. Franklin; Supt. of Young People's Work,
Mrs. H. L. Green; Supt. of Junior Work, Mrs. J. M. Means; Social Service, Mrs. F. L. Adams; Study and Publicity, Mrs. W. D. Berry; Supplies, Mrs. Laura Wells; Treasurer, Mrs. M. M. Head; Recording Secretary, Mrs. L. H. Rawls; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. W. D. Howell; Agent for "Missionary Voice," Mrs. L. H. Rawls.

Parsonage Aid Society.

The Parsonage Aid Society was organized in October, 1910, 30 members. Mrs. E. M. Pope was elected President; Mrs. W. D. Berry was elected Secretary and Treasurer. This society was organized for the purpose of improving and benefitting the parsonage in any way possible. In the year 1914 the name of this society was changed to Social Service Department and was then under the auspices of the Woman's Missionary Society. Many things have been accomplished by the aid of this society for both parsonage and church. Among the presidents who have served are Mrs. A. A. Howell, Mrs. Laura Wells, Mrs. J. M. Means, Mrs. McGouirk, Mrs. Adams and perhaps others. Many changes have taken place since its organization. Three of the charter members have been removed by death. Many have moved to other places, but today we still exist and can boast that we are still doing a good work, with Mrs. F. L. Adams, President, and Mrs. C. B. Pierce, Secretary and Treasurer, with a membership of 33.

Among the saints of other days belonging to the Methodist Church we mention Wm. Ford (Uncle Billy), Joseph Ford, R. Y. Beckham, Jas. Howell, Dr. C. F. Redding, Judge Jas. Pope.

The Zebulon Baptist Church.

The facts in the first part of this sketch are based partly on the recollection of a conversation with Rev. G. W. Wood now deceased. In 1823 a Baptist church was constituted and its meeting house erected on the grounds of what is now East View Cemetery in Zebulon. The church at that time was not known as the Zebulon Church, but its name has slipped the memory of the writer of this sketch. The division among Baptists on the question of the churches cooperating with missionary organizations was in process of development throughout the state. Differences among Baptists were somewhat neglected and overlooked in 1827 and 1828, due to the great revival all over the land. In the year
1828 in the Flint River Association consisting of 33 churches there were baptized 1,869 persons, almost doubling its membership. At the meeting of the Association in Forsyth in 1829 the real battle on the mission question began in this Association. By 1833 the baptisms dropped to 88.

The Baptist Church at Zebulon suffered proportionately.
The incident of Margaret Higdon given below shows the straits to which the church was reduced.

The new birth of the church, so to speak, took place on Tuesday, Oct. 7, 1834. From that time on it was known as the Baptist Church of Christ at Zebulon. A new minute book was begun with a record of a conference on that date.
In the minutes of May 1, 1841 it is recorded: "In consequence of a previous division in this church and the former clerk keeping the Church Book we find ourselves destitute of the Constitution and the Rules of Decorum for remedy whereof, etc." This quotation shows why a new record book was begun.

In this conference of October 7th delegates to the Association were appointed and the time set for the choice of a preacher, clerk and deacon or deacons. The delegates to the Association were James E. Bland and Milus Murdoch.
The minutes were signed by Spencer Stamper, Moderator, and Matthew Orr, Clerk pro tem.

From that time on, while at times it has not been as prosperous as at others, its growth has been commensurate with the town of Zebulon.

The pastors of the church from 1834 have been: John Milner, December, 1834, to 1836 inclusive; Spencer Stamper 1837 to 1841; John H. Milner, 1842, to March 9, 1857, the date of his death which was on the day after his last sermon; Jacob Buffington, 1857 to 1859; J. H. Weaver, 1860 to May, 1861, when he went to the war. A. B. Vaughan, Sr., a member of the church, filled the pulpit until October when W. G. McMichael who had been called as pastor accepted to serve to the end of the year. A. E. Cloud served 1862 and 1863. In 1864 J. H. Weaver was pastor again. J. M. Wood was pastor in 1865. In 1866 and 1867 J. H. Weaver was pastor for the third time. From 1868 to 1876 J. M. Wood was pastor. E. M. Hooten served in 1877 and 1878. J. M. Wood was pastor the third time from 1879 to 1881. In 1882 W. C. Felts was pastor. Harry Wells was pastor from November, 1882, to the end of 1888. J. W. Beck was pastor from 1889 to 1902. In 1903 and 1904 J. Parry Lee was pastor. C. M. Brittain was pastor in 1905. R. H. Harris began the year 1906 as pastor but his health failed. The church called R. L. Bolton who supplied until he left for the seminary in the fall. J. W. R. Jenkins has been pastor from 1907 to the present time.

The church has had only five clerks since its reorganization: James E. Bland beginning Oct. 25, 1834, Clark M. Dickinson beginning Jan. 5, 1839, Wiley E. Mangham beginning March 13, 1847, Wm. O. Gwyn beginning Jan. 11, 1891, and Jesse J. Slade beginning April 11, 1896.

In the minutes of April 5, 1862, this resolution is recorded: “On motion we the church unanimously tender our church bell as a donation to the Confederate Government to be cast into cannon for the use of the war.”

Of the early days of the Zebulon Baptist Church this incident is related: An unfortunate dispute began which divided the church into two factions. So warm was the contention that one side went over and nailed up the church.

Old “Grandma Higdon,” who sided with neither faction and prayed for both, one day was in the church yard cleaning off the graves of her dead. As she passed the church door and saw how the angry deacons had locked the Lord out of His house, she could stand it no longer. Sending one of her slaves for an ax, she had the doors and windows opened, letting in God's glorious sunlight. Then she took the dusty Bible from the pulpit, read a chapter, and then knelt in prayer with her faithful slaves.

As she started home she passed the gate of her lifelong friend, Mrs. E. W. Wells. She went in and related the aggressive measures she had taken. Mrs. Wells' reply was, "Sister Higden, you've done exactly right and to your next prayer meeting I'll come with my children." So these two earnest women held these simple services.

The time of the annual meeting of the Flint River Association was approaching. "Grandma Higdon" said the church must be represented. Since the men hadn't returned she had herself appointed a delegate, walked out to the Association at old Hebron Church, and was received as the first and only woman delegate of that body.

The deed to the Zebulon Baptist Church was made in 1835 by the judges of the Superior Court to Wiley Mangham and Geo. W. Milner, but was not recorded until 1861.

This church has given in the last three years to the 75-Million Campaign nearly $7,000.

There are 166 members on the church roll. The Sunday school has 122 on the roll.

The Ladies' Aid and Missionary Society of the Zebulon Baptist Church was organized in 1890, with Mrs. W. P. Gwynn, President; Miss Jennie Mitchell, Secretary, and Mrs. M. J. Redding, Treasurer. There were only ten members at first and but little work was accomplished; but as time went on, under the leadership of consecrated officers and by the efforts of willing workers, both membership and work increased. Now the enrollment is about thirty, and the funds raised have been used for different missions, general benevoence and church improvement. The W. M. S. has organized and is fostering the folloiwng organizations among the young people of their church: A Y. W. A., with Mrs. R. C.
Johnson as leader; a S. A., with Miss Lizzie Mitchell as leader; a band of Royal Ambassadors, led by Rev. J. W. R.
Jenkins; and a Sunbeam Band, led by Mrs. R. C. Johnson.
The present officers are: Mrs. C. R. Gwynn, President;
Mrs. J. W. R. Jenkins, Vice-President; Mrs. P. M. Sullivan,
Corresponding Secretary and Treasurer; Mrs. Robt. Dupree,
Recording Secretary; Mrs. J. J. Slade, Chairman of Personal Service Committee.

History of Williamson Methodist Church.

I am indebted to Mr. I. W. Williamson for the facts of the early history of this church. It is said that his great grandmother, Mrs. Nancy Freeman, brought the first Methodist preacher here. Six generations of the Williamson family have belonged to this church. These facts are recorded in an old class leader’s book kept by Bro. Williamson’s father. The church was established in 1823 and Andrew Hamill was the first pastor. The first church building was of logs, and was built on Hester’s Hill. Later a frame building was erected near where Dr. Beauchamp now lives and called Red Oak. The deed to the lot on which the church now stands was made by Giles Drier and I. B. Williamson in 1856, and was made to W. H. Simmons and B. F. Harber, trustees. This church is now on the Griffin Circuit and Rev. J. H. Farr is the present pastor. Dr. J. D. Yarbrough, 84 years old, is a confederate veteran, and a faithful member of this church. The following were among the early members of this church: The Harpers, Simmons, Yarbroughs, Allens, Freme, Rivers, Reids, Hesters, Williamsons, Hootens, and Holseys. The Hunts, Pattens, Shells, Borders and Barfields were members later. The following are the Board of Stewards: Dr. J. Beauchamp, P. W. Vaughn, Wallace Williams, L. D. Wheeless, Raymond Dickinson. 125 members are on the church roll.

Superintendent Sunday School, P. W. Vaughn. Number of officers, teachers, and pupils 65.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the M. E. Church was organized on January 3, 1915, by the District Secretary, Mrs. Sasser of Senoia. Under the pastorate of Rev. Mr. Nathan Thompson the society held on for one whole year with only four members. In January of next year, it took on a new lease of life and now has fourteen members. Dues are paid, church is looked after, and local charity is carried on by these faithful few.

Williamson Baptist Church.

In 1869 a little Baptist band began holding meetings in an old field schoolhouse on Shannon Place. They determined to organize a church. In 1871, Providence Baptist Church was built near what is now known as Rover, Ga. The charter members were Mr. Alien Shackelford, Miss Sal- lie Shackleford, Mr. and Mrs. Joel Aycock and Miss Lizzie Aycock. Miss Aycock is the oldest member of this church now living (1922). The first pastor was Col. John D. Stewart, later Judge Stewart, who served the church for twelve or more years and built up one of the strongest country churches in the Flint River Association. The church was named by Mrs. Joel Aycock. The first deacons were Alien Shackleford and Joel Aycock, who continued in office until their death. Eight children of the Aycock family joined this church. J. W. Shivers was the next deacon and remained in office for years. The following served while the church was near Rover: Revs. Enoch Hooten, Elam Culpepper, W. U. Kendrick, Prof. Wm. Pritchard (an educator and preacher), Judge Jas. A. Drewry, and Rev. Geo. Garner.
Judge Jas. A. Drewry has been pastor twice, and W. U. Kendrick three times. A number of the older members dying and so many moving to town, it was decided to move the church to Williamson. As the church had grown very weak, the Rev. Geo. Garner came as pastor again, he having been appointed by the Flint River Association to look after the weak churches. Under his ministry the church took on new life and many new members were received. Since his pastorate the following have served: Revs. Knowles and Pate, and Dr. B. J. W. Graham, the present pastor (1922).

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society was organized in 1908 with five or six members. Mrs. J. A. Bennett was the first president. Twenty-two members are now on the roll and Mrs. J. W. Touchstone is president. Only two of the charter members are now living, Mrs. O. T. Moreland and Mrs. Fillyaw, both of whom are untiring in their zeal and devotion to the cause. They look carefully after every department of missionary work. They have organized a Young Woman's Auxiliary, a Girls' Auxiliary, the Royal Ambassadors, and a Sunbeam Band. At present all the young people's societies work through the Baptist Young People's Union. The present deacons are Richard Rawls, Wm. Fillyaw, and Jesse Gill.

The Sunday School is in a flourishing condition, having five teachers and eighty members. The following are the officers: Otis Rawls, Superintendent; Jesse Gill, Assistant Superintendent; Wm. Fillyaw, Secretary and Treasurer.

I am indebted to Mrs. O. T. Moreland for the interesting information contained in this sketch.

Williamson Christian Church.

In August, 1911, Mrs. L. M. Omer, State Secretary of Missionary work, organized a W. M. S. at Bethany Christian Church. Mrs. C. A. Dickinson was made President. On account of scattered membership, it was suggested, as we had several members in Williamson, that we have our metting in the homes. Through the inspiration of our meeting we had a vision of a new church in Williamson, but was unable to secure a suitable lot until the fall of 1917 when a beautiful central lot was purchased from Josiah Allen, on which a nice brick church was built which is Williamson Christian Church. About fifty of the Bethany members enrolled there. We have at present about ninety on roll. On the fourth Sunday in January, 1919, we had our first service which was glorious. Our first and present pastor is Bro. F. L. Adams of Atlanta. We organized early in the same year. Sunday School was organized the following Sunday with J. W. Anderson, Superintendent, six teachers and two officers, C. A. Yarbrough, Secretary, and Drewry Dickinson, Treasurer. Had eighty pupils on roll. At present F. S. Drewry is Superintendent, and we have about fifty-five on roll. Have three elders and eight deacons.

Mrs. Belle Dickinson is President of the Woman's Missionary Society. Have twenty-two members. In July, 1920, the church was dedicated by John H. Wood, president of Southeastern Christian College, Auburn, Ga. Much good has been accomplished for our dear Lord since the organization in 1919. The church building is valued at $8,000.

BETHANY CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

Bethany Christian Church was organized by A. M. Ammons, an evangelist. The first pastor was W. L. Marshall. Harris Jones was pastor from 1881 to 1894; T. L. Harris served two years; then D. A. Brindle was pastor until 1899; then R. A. Helsabeck, 1900-01; W. F. Harrison, 1902; D. A. Brindle, 1903-07; Harrison Jones, 1908-09; A. J. Mize, 1910-11-12; T. E. Linkons, 1913; A. J. Mize, 1914; T. O. Slaughter, 1915; J. H. Corley, 1916-17; W. A. Chastain, 1918; D. A. Brindle, 1919-20; G. H. Kinnont, 1921-22. There are three deacons and one elder. There is a Ladies' Aid Society. F. S. Drewry has served as clerk and deacon for forty years.
Williamson High School.

Until a few years ago, Williamson had a very inferior school building, a poor equipment, and a very ordinary school. A few patriotic citizens met and consulted together to devise some plan to relieve the situation. They first tried a popular subscription, but this plan failed. About this time, Dr. J. C. Beauchamp was elected to the Senate. After studying the question, he introduced a bill in the Senate to allow local school districts to issue bonds for school purposes and pressed it to passage, and had the same done in the House of Representatives by an advocate of the bill. Under the provisions of this law, six per cent bonds to the amount of $6,000 were issued and sold, these bonds to run for a long term of years. By this means, Williamson now has a handsome building, veneered with brick, four large classrooms, commodious cloak rooms, and a broad hall on the first floor. On the second floor there is a music room and an auditorium with a seating capacity of 700. The stage fittings, the curtains and scenery and a piano were furnished by the Woman's Club. There is a handsome portico and entrance overlooking the grounds. There are six acres in the grounds of great natural beauty. The building was completed in 1915. Great credit is due Dr. Beauchamp for his interest and zeal.

Faculty for Fall term, 1922: Principal, W. L. Harris, 8th, 9th, 10th grades; Miss Evie Stone, 1st and 2nd grades; Miss Pauline Jones, 3rd and 4th grades; Miss Nell Shannon, 5th, 6th, and 7th grades; Music, Miss Louise Baker. There are ten grades taught. There is an average enrollment of 145 pupils.

WILLIAMSON WOMAN'S CLUB.

In October, 1904, the Williamson club was formed under the name of "Modern Priscillas." As the name would indicate, it was primarily a sewing club.

Soon, however, seeing the sore need, we began to take up civic and school improvement work. We raised money by various sundry and divers means and bought a piano for the school. We also started a public library which now contains over five hundred volumes, which, with the bookshelves, have been recently donated to the school, though still under the supervision of the club. We also paid off a debt of long standing on the church. In April, 1916, we federated, and with the broadening of our horizon, our name was changed to the Woman's Club.

All our energies were then directed toward building a club house, which, today, the only one in Pike, stands as a monument to the tireless efforts of its members. During the war, it was tendered to the Red Cross as a work room and remained as such to the end of the war. Each member of the club did her bit during the war. Towels, scrapbooks and canned fruit were sent to the base hospital at Fort McPherson. A complete hospital outfit for a soldier was donated, through the Griffin Red Cross, before our auxiliary was formed.

That Williamson always exceeded her quota in all the drives and campaigns was largely due to the concentrated efforts of the club members. Chairmen of the Red Cross auxiliary and U. W. W. campaign were also recruited from our ranks.

Trees have been planted as a memorial for each soldier who left from this vicinity.

The club contributes annually to the Tallulah Falls Institute and Student Aid, this year giving $1.00 per capita to the former.

The club has contributed largely to the social life of our village in giving showers for each bride and entertainments of every known variety. Flowers sent to sick and bereaved ones also.

In January, 1921, we became charter members of the Pike County Federation, and in October of the same year, members of the General Federation.

Our club house was formally dedicated and its doors thrown open to the public on April 30th, when with appropriate ceremonies, the cornerstone was laid by the Masonic fraternity. On the same day our club was hostess to the Pike County Federation at its first meeting.

A bulletin board, which has proved to be very useful, has been placed in the post office. We also conduct a second-hand magazine stand there, through the courtesy of the postmaster. At present, we are bending every effort toward beautifying the town well, for the benefit of the public at large, and as a memorial to one of our loved members.

Our membership is limited to twenty, and at present we have ten active members. On our roll, however, are one in New York, one in Florida, two in Atlanta, one in Kenwood, and one in Zebulon, who pay their dues, thus testifying to the love that they still bear to the Woman's Club of Williamson.

COLORED CHURCHES AND SCHOOLS.

Up to the close of the Civil War in 1865, the colored people belonged to the same church as the whites and were served by the same pastors, holding their services in the afternoons. In many of the Methodist churches, there were galleries built, and numbers of the servants occupied them during the services for white people. Some negroes were licensed as local preachers, and did much good among their own people, some of whom the writer remembers well, viz., Sandy Kendall and Edmund Lowe of Upson County, and
Wm. Fincher of Pike County.

Soon after the war the M. E. Church, South, organized the colored M. E. Church and has fostered it ever since. The other colored Methodists have gone either to the M. E. Church (North) or to the African M. E. Church. They have Methodist and Baptist churches at various places in the County, and have large memberships and enthusiastic services at all their churches. The A. M. E. Church in Zebulon has only 15 members. J. W. McKnight is the present pastor. The M. E. Church has 226 members and Jacob Maddox is pastor. The Baptist Church has 300 members and Monroe Watts is the present pastor. The M. E. Church for the colored people in Zebulon was organized 58 years ago. Jacob Maddox is also pastor at Meansville with 72 members, and at Roberts with 35 members.

The colored school in Zebulon has an enrollment of 186. There are schools and churches for colored people all over the county. They are noted for paying their pastors. The relations between the races are pleasant.

Floyd Slade runs an undertaker's establishment for colored people. Manuel Hall and Gilbert Baker run stores, and Robt. Lindsay and John Collier run blacksmith shops.

In cases of fire in Zebulon the colored people render valiant service.

Several colored soldiers died or were killed in France, but I have been unable to get the facts.

CONFEDERATE VETERANS.

In 1861, when Georgia seceded from the Union and took her place among the Confederate States of America, the call was made for troops to defend what we conceived to be our rights, as patriotic sons of the South our men and boys from 16 to 60 years arrayed themselves under the banner of the Confederacy and led by Jackson, Hood and Lee many of them laid down their lives on the altar of their country’s honor. Pike County furnished her full quota. Even if loyalty had not led her to do so willingly, public sentiment would have compelled it.

Most of our soldier boys have passed over the river and now “rest under the shade of the trees.” A few, in age and feebleness extreme, still wait the Master’s call.

The Confederate Veterans of Pike have an annual reunion at Bluff Springs Campground. We append a list of those who still survive:

WAR BETWEEN U. S. A. AND GERMANY.

When, in 1917, the United States, moved by a humanitarian impulse, to go to the help of the oppressed nations of Europe, declared war against Germany, and issued the call for troops, our boys responded from every state in the Union. The Georgia training camps were soon crowded with the flower and strength of our young manhood, who, with the patriotism characteristic of the Southern people were ready, if need be, to sacrifice their lives on the altar of their country's honor. Pike County furnished her quota. Some of them died in the training camps; some of them, on the field of battle, dyed the soil of France with their heart's blood. Each deserves the equal honor. The sacrifice was the same. Among those killed in France were Frank Hunt, son of T. J. Hunt. His body was brought to Milner and buried. Herman K. Davis, son of Austin Davis. He was buried in France. His mother died at her home near Zebulon, Ga., the day after his death.

Henry Allen O'Neal, son of J. J. O'Neal, enlisted in the Marines, August 14, 1917, and was sent at once to Paris Island; sailed for France in February, and made the supreme sacrifice June 14, 1918, in the battle of Chateau Thierry. He went out from Concord. His body was sent home and buried at Mt. Zion Church, Meriwether County, August, 1921.

Roy Todd, son of T. M. Todd of Concord, Ga., enlisted in the Marines; sailed for France in February and was killed in the battle of Chateau Thierry June 2, 1918. He was buried at Manchester, Ga., June, 1921.

Ernest Ross, son of W. A. Ross of Pike County, Ga., was killed in battle in France and his body was brought home for burial.

Solon Self, of Molena, Ga., died in France, and his body was brought home for burial.

The following died in the training camp: Pierre Sullivan, Grady Sullivan, sons of S. A. and Mrs. Mellie Sullivan, and were buried in Zebulon, Ga. Roswell Hooten, son of Rev. L. Hooten. He was buried in Zebulon, Ga.

THE RED CROSS.

When, at the call of our country, our boys and young men bade farewell to mothers and wives and sweethearts and went ready to make the supreme sacrifice, if need be, our women, animated by a patriotism equally as pure and a devotion as sublime, banded together for prayer and service, and Red Cross chapters were formed all over our land. The women of Pike County heard and responded to the call. Chapters were organized in Barnesville and Zebulon, and Auxiliaries at Meansville, Williamson, Concord, Hollenville, and New Hope, and also in the Zebulon High School. The Red Cross made sweaters, mufflers ad socks for the soldiers and underwear for the war orphan children of other lands. It also contributed money towards carrying on the World War.

Aside from the work done and the money given, perhaps the best service the Red Cross did was to create sentiment and so shape public opinion that no self-respecting white man dared be a shirker. When the U. S. Government put on the drives for the sale of bonds and war saving stamps there was no difficulty in raising the amounts called for, but the towns and villages and country places vied with each other in going “over the top.”

Below is a list of the officers of the Zebulon Red Cross Chapter: Chairman, J. W. R. Jenkins; Vice-Chairman, Mrs. M. M. Head; Recording Secretary, Annie May Baker; Treasurer, C. R. Gwyn; Chairman Woman’s Work, Mrs. W. J. Franklin; Chairman Home Service, Mrs. C. R. Gwyn; Chairman Junior Red Cross, Mrs. W. R. Gresham; Corresponding Secretary, Lutie Head; Chairman Finances, E. M. Owen; Chairman Publicity, Miss Nan Howard.
In 1917, Rev. E. P. Eubanks, who was then pastor of the Methodist Church in Zebulon, organized a Troop of Boy Scouts, from which our boys derived a great deal of pleasure and profit. By providing pure and innocent recreation for them, they were kept from seeking it in things impure and unclean. Then they were inspired by lofty and unselfish aims, and the many good deeds they wrought in helping people in trouble, looking after the sick not only lifted many a burden from troubled hearts, but afforded the boys themselves the joy that always comes from unselfish service to others.

COURTS OF PIKE COUNTY.

It appears from the records in the office of the Clerk of Pike Superior Court that the first superior court of Pike County was organized September 15, 1823.

An Act was passed by the General Assembly of Georgia the 23rd day of December, 1822, fixing the site of the Public Buildings in Pike County, and purchased a lot near the center of the County for county purposes, which was incorporated and made permanent by an Act of the General Assembly passed the 26th day of December, 1823. This county site was named Newnan and was about one mile west of the present town of Meansville. The Court House at Newnan was of hewed logs.

An Act was passed December 10, 1824, requiring a portion of Pike County to be taken off and added to Upson County, which caused the Public Site to be near the south line of Pike County, the Commissioners thereby being compelled to discard the first site and select a second lot for the Public Site, lot number 227 in the Eighth District of Pike County was selected and the site was named Zebulon. The Act fixing this lot as the county site and incorporating it as such was approved November 25, 1825, by G. M. Troup, Governor, and was to take effect upon its approval.
